

FLOURISH, FAIRFIELD!

Learn about a new, ethical, and enlightened model for business, government or any organization.

Titanian Octalogues are a powerful new way to maximize your creativity and enhance your life by organizing and operating cooperative voluntary associations for any ethical purpose. A core Octalogue groups starts with 8±1 members with men and women in equal numbers (±1), and contracts with other Octalogues. Octalogue core values include Creativity, Love, Awareness, Objective Truth, Personal Evolution, and their logical equivalents. Octalogues are non-hierarchical and non-bureaucratic, encourage and use all available feedback, and are constrained to make only unanimous decisions. Octalogues are ideally suited for business, government, or any organization seeking an ethical, “bottom up” structure.

BOB PODOLSKY - Visionary, Physicist, and Psychotherapist

Bob Podolsky worked with John David Garcia to create highly ethical and creative organizations in groups of 8 known as the Octalogue. More than 30 years ago Bob started asking himself what would be required for humanity to THRIVE and FLOURISH? Bob Podolsky is a physicist, systems analyst, master psychotherapist, visionary and author of seven books on ethics law and government. Bob brings a SOLUTION based strategy for self-governance AND self awareness.

FOSTER GAMBLE - Producer of “THRIVE” Movie

Foster Gamble is the creator of the inspiring movie, “Thrive” and leader of the Thrive Movement – one of the most innovative strategies aimed at worldwide peace and prosperity. After reading Bob Podolsky’s book “Flourish!”, Foster said: “Wow... Excellent job... I feel like I have found a true ally.”

Note: Foster Gamble will participate via videoconference link.

CLYDE CLEVELAND - Environmental Entrepreneur and Author

“The Titanian Octalogue offers a new “bottom up” model for organizing people that is highly ethical and values feedback. It also eliminates hierarchy and bureaucracy. Applied in business, this model results in much higher employee satisfaction and greater profits. Applied in government this model will result in highly ethical actions and will produce a more peaceful and environmentally friendly world.”

Clyde Cleveland, author of Common Sense Revisited and Restoring the Heart of America, co-founder of the County Sheriff Project, and lifelong entrepreneur, educator and activist.
